Frist Funeral Home

Sharon Kay (Ingram) Kovarik, 79, of Clinton, was reunited with the love of her life by natural causes on June 4, 2020 at her home.

She was born November 21, 1940, to William and Lovetta (B) Ingram in Rockville, IN, and spent the majority of her life in the Clinton area. Sharon married Jerry Kovarik on March 31, 1961 in Fairview Park, and was a homemaker after she married.

Sharon was active in her children's activities becoming both Boy Scout and Girl Scout Leaders, school volunteer librarian, and class mom. She was Past Honored Queen and Bethel Guardian of Bethel #5 International Order of Job's Daughters. Sharon was a 50 year member of and Past Worthy Matron of Jerusalem #254, Order of the Eastern Star. During her involvement with Job's Daughters and Eastern Star, she impacted many young women's lives and held many offices, both state and locally. She was a member of several Red Hat groups and enjoyed the numerous outings with her friends. She was a proud honor student of Clinton High School, the Wildcat Class of 1958, and an Election Poll worker for many years.

Sharon enjoyed doting on her five granddaughters, staying active in her community, and keeping up with friends. She especially enjoyed traveling with friends and family. She was an avid crafter and seamstress, making many items for special events and occasions.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and her brother, Joe Ingram. She leaves a son and daughter, Jerry (Brenda) Kovarik of Sanford, FL, and Katherine (Jeffrey) Berry of Greenwood, IN, and granddaughters, Christina (Michael) Eaton of Greenfield, IN, Lindsey Kovarik and Madeline Kovarik, both of Indianapolis, In, Abigail (Austin) Dixon of Ellettsville, IN, and Alexandria (Max) Thielmeyer of New Whiteland, IN. Sharon is also survived by several cousins, nieces, and a nephew.

Graveside services will be held at Walnut Grove Cemetery on Thursday, June 11 at 1 pm. In lieu of flowers, contributions to a one-time scholarship to help a South Vermillion woman further her education will be accepted in care of Frist Funeral Home, 458 Blackman Street.
