Lois Evelyn Mankin Turner, 93, of Clinton, passed away on August 25, 2020, at Vermillion Convalescent Center in Clinton.

She was born in Lyford, Indiana, on August 31, 1926, to Inez and Ealey Mankin.

She loved her little Tea Cup Chihuahua and also loved music. She could play the ukelele and piano and could crochet almost anything.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Pete Silotto; her daughter Albenia June; one sister Pat Roberts; and two brothers, Mick and Jesse.

Lois is survived by three daughters, Toni Smith (Jim) of Centerville, IN and Cathy Faust (Mark) of Dubuque, Iowa, and Tena Drake of Dana, IN; two sons, Jim Silotto (Kathy) of Terre Haute, and Pete Duane Silotto of Clinton, IN. Other survivors are four sisters, Creola "Peanut" of Paris, IL, Bert Pearman of Clinton, Moyne Carroll, also of Clinton, and Julia Rigger (Elmer) of Fullerton, CA. She is also survived by several grandchildren and great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews.

Graveside services were held August 29, 2020 with Pastor Sam Ball officiating. Burial followed at Walnut Grove Cemetery.

Frist Funeral Home was in charge of care and arrangements. Online condolences may be made to www.fristfuneralhome.com.
